work, it is prayed that orders may be passed to make it compulsory on the part of the village officers to attend to the collection work in Village Panchayet areas.

SUBJECT No. 47.

Abolition of the post of the Chief Sanitary Inspector.

Mr. K. Ramegowda, Bowringpet Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The post of the Chief Sanitary Inspector recently created by Government is unnecessary and may be done away with, the District Medical Officer being entrusted with the duties of sanitation as heretofore. There will be a saving of Rs. 15,000 thereby.

MISCELLANEOUS—(REFORMS).

(Nos. 48 to 50.)

SUBJECT No. 48.

The basis of representation in rural and urban areas to the Representative Assembly to be the same.

Mr. Linge Gowda, Mysore Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The unit of representation in the Representative Assembly for both rural and urban areas may be ordered to be the same. As per recommendations of the Reforms Committee, every member of the rural area will represent 23,000 people. while every member in the urban area only 8,000 people. If the proposal is sanctioned, the rural areas will be inadequately represented.

SUBJECT No. 49.

Continuance of the deputation of Members to the Representative Assembly from District Boards and Municipal Councils.

Messrs. (a) H. Krishna Sastry, Krishnarajpete Taluk; P. R. Lakshminaranappa, Mugur Municipality; Kadeem Venkatasubbiah, Talkad Municipality and Puttanna, T.-Narsipur Municipality ; (b) N. Gurulingappa and K. Basavalingappa, Honnali Taluk ; Y. K. Virupaiya, Nyamti Municipality ; and Esuff Khan, Kumsi Sub-Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—(a) It is prayed that District Boards and Municipal Councils may not be made to lose representation in the Representative Assembly.

(b) The Reforms Scheme does not provide for the deputation of members from the municipalities to the Representative Assembly. It is therefore prayed that the existing privilege may be continued.

SUBJECT No. 50.

A seat for the Indian Christian Community in the new Legislative Council.

Mr. J. R. Isaac, Indian Christian Association, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.—A seat may be allotted in the new Legislative Council for the Indian Christian Community.